

Internships

The Haemophilia Society often offers internships where we exchange on the job training and help with applications for the hard work of volunteers.

Successful internships in the past have included:

- Community Fundraising
- Trust Fundraising
- Corporate Fundraising
- Press and Media
- Policy and Research
- Project Management
- Services

If you are interested in getting working in the third sector and would be interested in an internship please contact us to find out more.